

YOU'RE INVITED!

Runway of Prosperity
Town Hall

August
20,
2020

11:30 AM PDT
Elko Regional Airport

Aviation, civic, and business leaders at in Elko, NV are invited to the Runway of Prosperity Town Hall on August 20, 2020 at 11:30 AM PDT. This Town Hall, hosted by NATA and Mountain West Aviation, is designed to create an interactive forum for your comments and ideas on how we can all work together to demonstrate and communicate the significant, meaningful contributions of our industry.

Topics include:

- Discussions with community leaders on how general aviation stakeholders facilitate the success of the community
- How rural airports serve as a runway for economic and job recovery and development
- And more!

There has never been a more important time to educate key regional and state influencers on the critical importance of aviation businesses and the essential services they deliver. Helping key members of your community understand all of the benefits general aviation provides will be imperative to protecting the industry, improving our businesses, and empowering regional growth.

We hope to see you on August 20th!
